

2018 CALL FOR ART VIOLENCE TRANSFORMED: STAND UP (THE ARTIST'S VOICE)

April 2 - June 4, 2018

UNITED SOUTH END SETTLEMENTS / HARRIET TUBMAN HOUSE, BOSTON, MA

EXTENDED SUBMISSION DEADLINE:

FEBRUARY 1, 2018

Violence Transformed Violence Transformed invites VISUAL ARTISTS to participate in our 2018 exhibit. Submitted work should address issues of violence, with emphasis on how art can transform our future. Violence Transformed 2018 seeks entries in any medium for exhibition and/or digital projection at the USES Harriet Tubman Gallery in Boston.

Violence Transformed 2018 invites artists to submit individual and collaborative works that confront and imagine alternatives to violence at local, national and international levels, address issues of protest, refuge, survival and commemoration, and give expression to the power of art to heal and enrich our lives and our communities. Works that invite and stimulate dialogue across boundaries of nation, race, ethnicity, religious ideology (or lack thereof), politics, gender and sexual orientation are particularly welcome. Stand Up (The Artists' Voice) seeks art that demonstrates the power of artists as activists whether they address gun violence, domestic violence, sexual harassment or racial discrimination.

In the spirit of our venue, we seek to demonstrate the power of artists and their contribution to change the status quo. The audience for Violence Transformed exhibits include children, adolescents and adults of diverse backgrounds and communities. We are less interested, therefore, in graphic depictions of violence than in works that encourage reflection, awareness and community-wide engagement with the arts.
